Every Read Counts

We have had some children across school who have chosen positive points as their reward. We have also had many children who have claimed a small prize, but Maria (1 Italy) has waited until she could claim a book as her prize.
Super reading across school everyone keep it up!

Reception England's first Farm and Forest week!

This week saw some very excited 4- and 5-year-olds visit our animals for their first time! Reception England demonstrated their Pride Virtues in many ways...

Expressing their DT skills of threading and printing using natural resources.

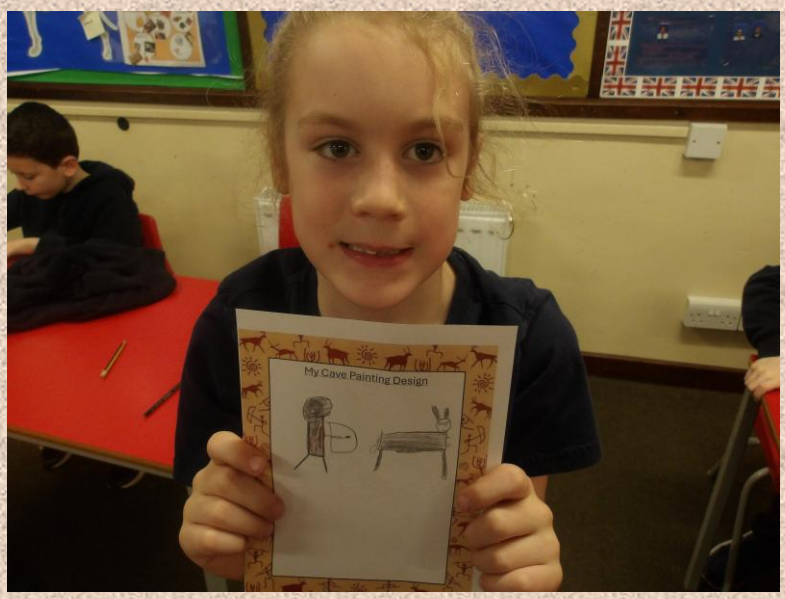
Being inquisitive whilst exploring the sensory barefoot walk

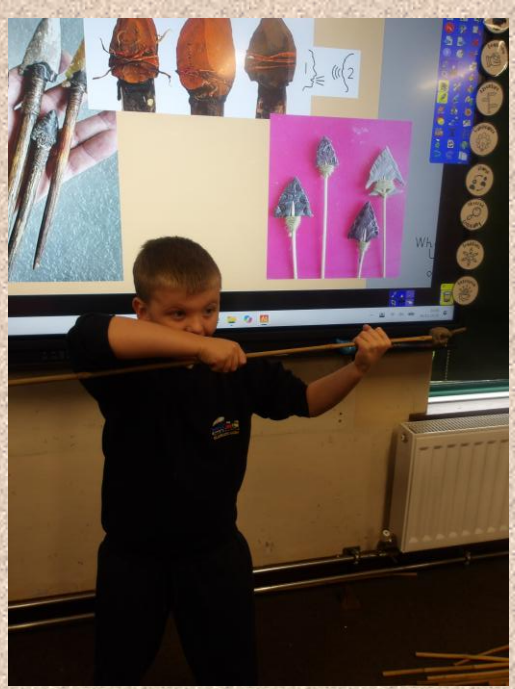
Showing respect to each other, our animals and our staff – well done Reception!

Cleaning the animal pens and feeding Alpacas

Stone Age Day!

3 Canada and 3 Japan had an amazing history day as they explored the Stone Age in more depth through art, DT, history, drama, and narrative.





Building Stonehenge, making spears, cave painting
