Special mention:

Thank you to Jorge who found it very tricky to choose this week! He adopted Evan’s method from last week and even got down on his hands and knees to check under benches! He took the role very seriously. He felt guilty for choosing his own class; however, they did win fair and square!

Our “TT Rockstars” this week are:

Year 1	Archie (1N) Brody (1B-L)
Year 2:	Frankie (2F) Nevaeh (2A)
Year 3:	Robert (3C) Lilly Mae (3N)
Year 4:	Heison (4W) Lincoln (4D)
Year 5:	Mia
Year 6:	Winnie

Winners were chosen for effort, perseverance, overcoming hurdles, achievements, and improvement in scores. Congratulations everyone!

Music Concert

This week saw 5 Seacole and 6 Pankhurst perform musical pieces for their families in their special afternoon Music Concert led by Mrs Smith (Rockit Music). There were lots of clapping and cheering in appreciation of their talents.

6 Pankhurst will be completing a Level 4 Examination on Monday 23rd June. They will perform their pieces for examiners from the London Music Board. Good luck Year 6, we know that you will be amazing.

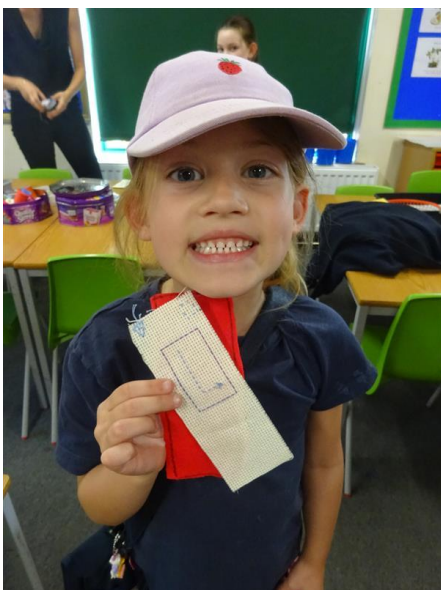

Let's get creative!

Children from Year 4 have been painting their 'Pride in Our Community' Kaleidoscope artwork for the Tamworth Arts Festival on 5th July. Come along and complete the 'Art Trail' and enjoy the singing and dancing!

KS1 Children who attend the after-school sewing club have created their own book marks. The children took their time and skilfully demonstrated their sewing skills! Well done, they are lovely!

Year 5 made tortilla wraps using masa harina, water and salt, inspired by the Mayan's use of corn flour. The children made individual wraps which they will eat next week alongside a salsa dip.

Year 3 trip to the MAD Museum and Butterfly Farm in Stratford Upon Avon. The children explored lifecycles of butterflies and insects (Science) and interacted with Mechanical Art (DT). They had a wonderful day enhancing their learning.
